

Trainer's EDGE

Explain ■ Demonstrate ■ Guide ■ Enable

WHAT: The Trainer's EDGE, a training course for Scouters and Scouts who have led or want to help lead Cub, Boy, or Venturing training courses, to include staff for Summer Camp, Wood Badge, and National Youth Leadership (NYLT) Training.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: This is a required course for all Wood Badge and NYLT staff members, and recommended for any Scouter who leads training courses. The curriculum provides the behaviors and resources necessary for leading a successful and fun training experience. We are offering it so all of our volunteers can be up to date on this important training.

HOW OFTEN: You only need to take this training once every five years.

WHEN: Saturday, February 17th, 2018 from 9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

WHERE: Florida Clerk of Court, 3544 Maclay Blvd, Tallahassee FL

INSTRUCTOR: Harry Bass and the SRAC EDGE Training Team

COST: Zero. It's free!

WHAT TO BRING: Pen or pencil. A handout will contain course information and space for note taking. A sack lunch or money if you'd like to order pizza. Dress casually.

REGISTRATION: Email Harry Bass at colhcbass@gmail.com. Please include your name, unit, and contact information.
